My Story

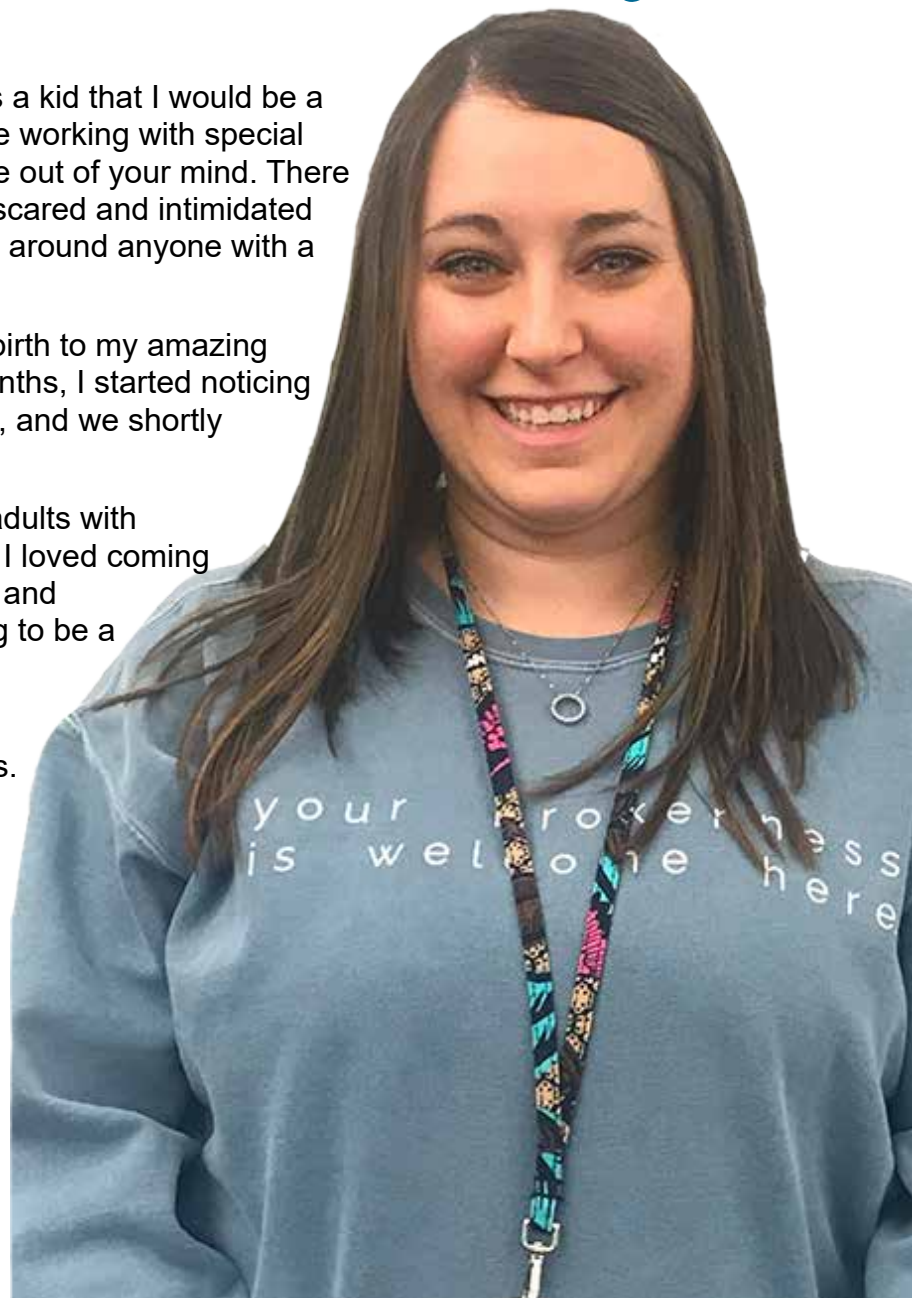

If you would have told me when I was a kid that I would be a special needs mom, or that I would be working with special needs, I would have thought you were out of your mind. There was a time in my life where I was so scared and intimidated about special needs, that I couldn't be around anyone with a disability.

Then in 2011 at 19 years old, I gave birth to my amazing son! He is the light of my life. At 6 months, I started noticing that he wasn't doing things he should, and we shortly found out he had Cerebral Palsy.

In 2013, I started at my first job with adults with disabilities, and I instantly fell in love. I loved coming to work every day and getting to help and encourage my individuals, and getting to be a support to their families.

I then took a break from adults and worked with kids who have disabilities. I loved doing that, and helping the parents whose kids were just getting diagnosed. That is a strong passion I have.

I was there for about 2 years, and then started my journey with adults again at First Christian Church Day Services. I absolutely love it. I love getting to watch them grow, and learn, and achieve their dreams. I love getting to come along side them and encourage them, and be a support to the families.
