My Story

My name is Gregory Gonzalez and people call me Greg. I live with my Mom and Dad. I have a sister Casey, and she lives in New York City.

I graduated from Jackson High School in 2005. I enjoyed studying horticulture. I was also a trainer on the football team for Coach Neitzelt. I still follow Jackson sports.

I root for the Indians and the Buckeyes and the Pittsburgh Steelers. I also like hockey, especially the Pittsburgh Penguins and the Detroit Red Wings.

I played Challenger Baseball and still play Special Olympics softball and bowling for the Stark PublicRoyal Knights. I got a gold medal in bowling two years ago.

I like watching classic movies and The Voice, American Idol and American Has Talent on TV.

My first job after high school was with a landscape company. But when the summer ran out, I joined Fishers Foods as a utility clerk (grocery bagger) and I have worked at the store on Fulton Road for 14 years. Stark DD helped me with a job coach and they still check in on me to see how I am doing and if I need help in any way. Now I help train the new baggers that we hire! The best things about Fishers are the people that I work with and our customers. My manager Vickie helps me and Jeff and Alex Fisher say I am doing a good job. I am proud that Jeff says that I know more customers than anyone!

I mow the grass and shovel snow where my dad and my uncle work. And, I help Diane there on trash day and with shredding. I like to go with my Uncle Doug and help with some of the jobs he is working on in the field. I keep my Kawasaki ATV at his house and I ride it there.

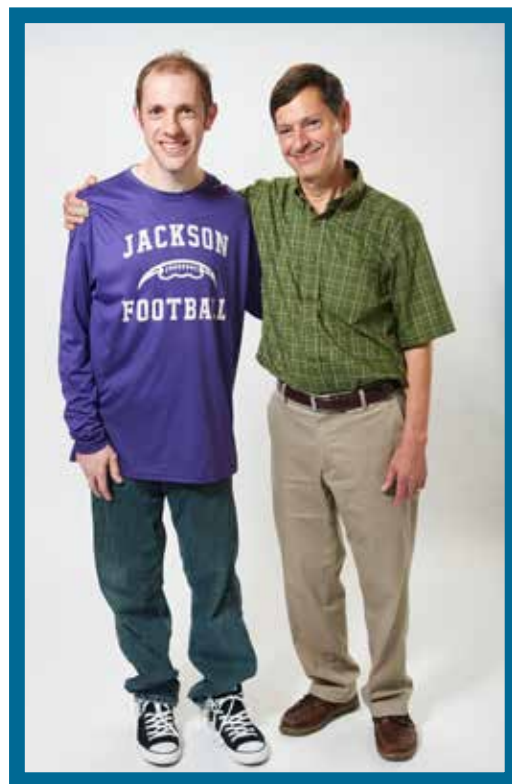

I got a puppy this summer. Rachel recommended her dog – an Australian shepherd. I got a miniature Aussie and her name is Belle. She won't let me sleep in like I used to do. She is very friendly and can't wait until I get home from work.

My sister got engaged to Joe and they are getting married next year. I really like Joe and we have fun with Star Wars, Star Trek, and Marvel Comics where he used to work. I have good friends Janelle and Angela in Michigan and Angela here in Canton. We like to go to zoos, aquariums and garage sales. My neighbor friends Joe and Bradley help me get to the Jackson football and basketball games. Brandon is my best friend on the Royal Knights.

I hope to move up from a bagger to a stocker at Fishers. Vickie is the store manager and she lets me do some stocking now and I know Stark DD will help me too. But most of all, I like seeing and talking to our regular customers. I am glad that so many people help me with my job and I love working at Fishers!
