Rev. 6/23

DEFINITION OF INCOME

Income means total cash receipts before taxes from all sources, with the exceptions noted below.

Income includes:

- money wages or salary before deductions
- net income from non-farm self-employment
- net income from farm self-employment
- regular payments from Social Security or railroad retirement
- payments from unemployment compensation, strike benefits from union funds
- workers' compensation, veterans' benefits, public assistance (including Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Supplemental Security Income, Emergency Assistance money payments, and non-Federally funded General Assistance or General Relief money payments)
- training stipends
- alimony, child support, and military family allotments or other regular support from an absent family member or someone not living in the household
- private pensions, government employee pensions (including military retirement pay), and regular insurance or annuity payments
- college or university scholarships, grants, fellowships, and assistantships
- dividends, interest, net rental income, net royalties, and periodic receipts from estates or trusts
- net gambling or lottery winnings

As defined here, income does NOT include:

- capital gains
- any assets drawn down as withdrawals from a bank, the sale of property, a house, or a car
- tax refunds, gifts, loans, lump-sum inheritances, one-time insurance payments, or compensation for injury
- non-cash benefits such as the employer-paid or union-paid portion of health insurance or other employee fringe benefits
- food or housing received in lieu of wages
- the value of food and fuel produced and consumed on farms
- the imputed value of rent from owner-occupied non-farm or farm housing
- such Federal non-cash benefit programs as Medicare, Medicaid, food stamps, food lunches, and housing assistance

The period of time to be considered for eligibility is the 12 months immediately preceding the month in which application or re-application for enrollment of a child in the preschool program is made, or for the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which the application or re-application is made, whichever more accurately reflects the family's current needs.
